

Work Group 4

Documents and Collections

The principal aims of WG4 are two-fold.

The first is to contribute to the refinement of a shared data model which includes common definitions of the physical features of the letter, its basic genres, and its modes of dissemination and preservation.

The second is to plan and pilot a census of correspondence collections across Europe, and the infrastructure designed to support it.